

A professional engineer is leading the charge to better understand how current development patterns are making us poor. Our cities are designed to decline. Chuck Marohn of Strong Towns will help us understand why, and how to change it. Join us for a refreshing take on development, land-use, planning, transportation, infrastructure, taxation, subsidies, government policy, and creating wealth and prosperity. Details at nextstl.com/strongtowns

Curbside Chat Two opportunities to see the presentation and discussion

Oct 7, 6:30 pm UMSL Rm 202 JC Penney Conf Cntr Hosted by Creating Whole Communities

Oct 8, 7 pm Washington Univ May Auditorium Simon Hall Hosted by ISSUES Magazine

Transportation in the Next American City

Oct 9, 7:30 am Breakfast at Missouri Athletic Club, 405 Washington Ave. Hosted by Citizens for Modern Transit. $15 CMT Members, $25 Non-Members Tickets at cmt-stl.org

issues magazine

ULI Urban Land Institute St. Louis

